1	Tyres for Planting	Huge word of thanks to Olesya and all of the parents who helped paint tyres for each of the classes on Friday. Each class will have two tyres where they will plant some flowers and herbs. Thanks again for all involved!
2	Seachtain na Gaeilge	This week we will be celebrating Seachtain na Gaeilge, where the children will be encouraged to use their Gaeilge words and phrases throughout the week. We will also have some special songs/rhymes that the children will be learning and performing for other classes. We will be having Lá Glas (Green Day) on Thursday where children can dress up in anything green to celebrate this special week and also St Patrick's Day, which will be on Friday. If you wish to help your child improve their Gaeilge, Duo Lingo is a good app to try at home!
4	St Patrick's Day	Reminder that school will be closed on Friday March 17th for St Patrick's Day

5	Immunisation Forms	A note for Junior Infant Parents- your child will receive a consent form for Immunisation	Please complete and return to the school, before Thursday.
6	Student of the Week	This week the children will be working on “Using Kind words”.
7	Welcome Booklet	Our new welcome booklet is now available on the website. Any feedback/suggestions are welcome. The Holistic Committee have gathered a huge amount of information for the booklet about local clubs and activities which you may find helpful.	Let us know what you think at info@shellybanksetnc.ie
8	School Calendar 2017/2018	The school calendar for the next academic year will be available on the website this week.
9.	Junior Infants- Siblings 2017	For all incoming Junior Infant siblings- we will be having a brief parent info meeting on April Wednesday 5th at 7pm.
	A Note from the PTA	PLAY IT FORWARD:  The Shellybanks ETNS annual Play it Forward event is scheduled for Saturday April 29th and it's time to start planning. We will hold a
