1.	Mid term break	Midterm break will be from Monday 30th October to Friday 3rd November. School will reopen on Monday 6th November.
2.	‘Trick or Treat for Temple Street’	This Friday, October 27th, the children are invited to dress up in a Halloween costume and make a donation to Temple Street Children’s Hospital. We have taken part in this campaign for the past few years. It is a great cause and the children really enjoy dressing up. There may even be some spot prizes for the scariest costume!
3.	Student of the week	This week the children will be working on, ‘We are kind when people get upset’ Winners from Last week: Rachel’s Class: Henry Gemma’s Class: . Penny Aiveen’s Class: Hannah Eoin’s Class: Ailee Stephanie’s Class: Liam R. Maura’s Class: Marc Aileen’s Class: Malachy Michael’s Class: Tadhg
4.	New school building update	We have been in contact with Kevin Humpries, local TD recently. We were delighted to hear that he raised the issue of our permanent school building and the possibility of a second level Educate Together School, at a recent Seanad meeting. The response was very positive. We are also delighted to announce that the planning permission for our new temporary accommodation in Roslyn Park next year has been submitted to Dublin City Council. It is great to see this progress being made towards our permanent school in the future. The plans will be available for parents to see in the parent room from tomorrow on.	Have a look at the Dept response on his facebook page. Here is a link to the application online also.
5.	Student Teacher	We will have a new student teacher in the school for two weeks. His name is Oisín. He will be working in learning support.
6.	Sandymount Tidy Towns	We had two representatives from Sandymount Tidy Towns in to speak to the children at assembly on Friday. They were telling us about a family event that is taking place next weekend, ‘The Scarecrow and Pumpkin Festival’.	Please find attached the flyer needed to enter the competitions

7.	Student Council Election	The Student Council election will take place on Tuesday. The council will be made up of children from senior infants to 2nd class. Every child in the school will vote for a representative for their class. The children are really enjoying learning about the role of a student council and we look forward to seeing the council grow and develop over the coming months. Michael, Fionnuala and Stephanie will be working with the council.
8.	Gaeilgeoir na Seachtaine	This week the children are learning how to say, 'you're welcome'. 'Tá fáilte romhat' 'thaw fallta rowut' Winners from last week: Gemma: Neven Rachel: Bo Aiveen: Joseph Eoin: Saanvi Maura: Hanna Stephanie: Lydia Michael: Marianne Aileen: Damian
