Welcome back	Welcome back after the mid-term break. We hope the children enjoyed the week off school.
Staffing Update	Alison, who was our 2nd Class B teacher, has left Shellybanks ETNS as she has moved outside the Dublin area. Jonathan, who had been teaching 1st Class A, has now taken over the role of class teacher in 2nd Class B for the remainder of the school year. Both our 1st Classes have been amalgamated, with Eoin being their class teacher. Marcus Nagle our caretaker will be working with us part-time.
Car Park	Gentle reminder that the car park beside the school is not to be used as a drop off and collection zone. Thank you for your support in relation to this matter.
Garda Visit	This month Senior Infants were learning about People Who Help Us. The boys and girls were so excited to get a visit from a member of An Garda Síochána. We learned about the job of a Garda and how to stay safe during Halloween. Huge thanks to Garda Kevin for volunteering his time to come and speak to the children.	If any parents would like to speak to the children about different jobs, cultures, countries or a topic of interest to them, please get in touch with your class teacher.
Parent Teacher Meetings	Reminder these will be on the week of the 18th to 22nd November. Class teachers will be sharing a document with you later on this week so you can assign yourself to a day and time.	Class Teachers
